

The Department of Psychology at Ben-Gurion University of the Negev, Israel (<https://in.bgu.ac.il/humsos/psych/eng/pages/default.aspx>) invites outstanding applications for several academic tenure-track appointments (open rank; per qualifications and experience) in Social and/or Clinical Psychology. The appointments are subject to budgetary and professional approvals. Expected start date: October 2023. Applicants are encouraged to apply by October 31st, 2022. Later submissions will be considered on a rolling basis until the positions are filled.

We seek candidates with strong evidence of excellence in research, showing an excellent track record for their career stage, evident by previous high-quality contributions to psychology. For the clinical track, we are seeking an applicant with a strong record of clinical research and clinical training/experience, consistent with the scientist-practitioner model. Licensed or license-eligible clinical psychologist preferred. For the social psychology track, we will consider candidates from all subdisciplines. Candidates with prior experience in group processes and intergroup relations research are especially encouraged to apply.

To apply, please submit a letter of application including a research statement describing current activities and future plans (up to 4 pages), a statement of teaching interests, curriculum vitae, 3-4 sample papers, and email addresses of at least three references at https://bguacademicrecruitment.force.com/Recruiters/VF_BGUPositions?Id=02i5I00000DNdc7. Questions regarding the position may be directed to the chair of the department, Prof. Andrea Berger (andrea@bgu.ac.il).